22nd NATO-Music Festival Features International Bands

Advance ticket sale starts in early December

The city of Kaiserslautern launches the advance sale of tickets for the 22nd NATO Music Festival early in December 2010. The open-air event will take place – as usual – in the Fritz Walter stadium on the Betzenberg hill at Kaiserslautern on 11 June 2011.

Though the exact list of military bands is not finalised, the programme suggests an interesting international participation. Military bands from various NATO nations including the United States Air Forces in Europe Band, the Bundeswehr's Baltic Sea Navy Band and an ensemble from Luxembourg will once again thrill the audience with an exclusive programme. As a particular highlight, Joy Fleming, a German singer famous for her fantastic voice and her great musical repertoire is going to perform during the festival. More information can be found at the festival website at www.nmf-kl.de.

Tickets for the NATO Music Festival are on sale at the Tourist Information in Fruchthallstraße (telephone: +49 (0)631 365-2316 or -2317) as well as at all Ticket-Online advance booking offices (ticket phone hotline: +49 (0)1805-4470; Internet: www.ticketonline.de). Advance booking prices range from 14 to 25 EUR (16 to 27 EUR on the night); Discounts and special tariffs are available among others for wheelchair users, youth, schoolchildren, students as well as basic
